

Literary Elements: vocabulary

Across

- 3. Takes place inside the characters mind
- 4. Time and place during story
- 8. See what the person has seen in the past
- 10. Clues and hints to whats going to happen in the near future
- 12. Unraveling the knot
- 16. Takes place between a character and another person or between a character and something non-human

- 17. A one-dimensional character, having only one or two qualities that define or limit them
 - 19. An object, person, animal or event that stands for something more than itself
- Down
- 1. Series of related events that make up a story or drama
 - 2. First, second, third
 - 5. And ideal example of a type of person
 - 6. The central idea of a work of literature
 - 7. How the writer makes the characters fell and make the readers feel empathetic

- 9. Multiple characteristics in one character
- 11. Occurs when the audience or reader knows something important that a character in the play or story does not know.
- 13. Character who is constrafted to another character
- 14. Creates a scene in the reader's mind. The readers could see smeel and touch
- 15. The authors mood towards the audience. Can be happy, sad, mad, etc.
- 18. Height of action in a story's sequence

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-----------|---------------|-----------------|-------------------|-------------------|
| Symbolism | Point of view | Imagery | Dramatic Irony | Setting |
| Theme | Archetype | Flat character | Foreshadowing | External conflict |
| Mood | Tone | Climax | Internal Conflict | Flashback |
| Plot | Foil | Round character | Denouement | |