

Literary Terms

Across

3. The dictionary definition of a word
 5. The repetition of consonant sounds at the beginning of words
 10. A word that describes an object
 11. A word that shows action
 12. The narrator of a poem
 14. A word that reflects the sounds associated with that word is called...

15. A comparison that uses "like" or "as"

16. A person's own perspective is also their own

18. The repetition of vowel sounds in words side-by-side

Down

1. A type of language that is written in creative or unusual ways

2. The process of giving non-human things human characteristics

4. Words or phrases that express ideas or feelings

6. The author's attitude of a text

7. A word that describes how an action is carried out

8. An extreme exaggeration

9. A comparison that does not use "like" or "as"

13. A type of language that is specific to a certain subject area

17. A word that identifies a person, place, or thing