

Literary Terms

Across

- 2. the time and place within which a story takes place
- 5. the central message, usually a generalization about people or life
- 8. a hint of something to come in the future
- 9. exaggeration to make a point
- 10. problem to be solved

11. giving human characteristics to a non-human subject

12. self vs self (problem to be solved within oneself)

Down

- 1. comparison of two unlike things using like or as
- 3. a direct comparison between two unlike things (no like, as, or than)

- 4. man vs man (problem between people) or man vs nature (problem involving man and the forces of nature)
- 6. a common cultural saying not meant to be taken literally
- 7. telling of a scene from the past within a story told in the present