

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Literary Terms

Across

3. A comparison of two unlike objects NOT using "like" or "as"
 5. A small narrative with a simple plot and a few characters
 7. The way an author describes a character
 11. A high point or turning point in a story
 12. Person or thing causing the problem

15. The writer's attitude toward a subject

16. The feeling created by a literary work

17. A feeling of anxiety or apprehension

18. The author's choice of narrator

Down

1. Person who tells the story

2. The main character in a story who has a problem

4. Has a complex plot, many characters and settings

6. Problem in a story

8. An exaggeration for the sake of emphasis

9. Something that represents something else

10. A comparison of two unlike things using "like" or "as"

13. The message an author wants to convey

14. An unexpected twist