

Literary Terms - #1

Across

1. - method of characterization in which the author tells the reader directly what the character is like
 6. two or more ideas, places, characters, and their actions are placed side by side in a narrative or a poem, for the purpose of developing comparisons and contrasts.
 7. Stopping the Forward action to recount a past event to supply background material or maintain suspense
 12. an author shows readers a character's traits through that character's actions and/or words

13. Minor character whose role sharpens our understanding of a major character by providing a contrast
 14. undergoes a major transition in one or more of ways by the end of the story

Down

2. Clues of what is to come
 3. Action becomes intense and may resolve the conflict or it simply ends often in catastrophe
 4. struggle between opposing forces. Usually, the main character struggles against some other force.
 5. imaginary persons who carry out the action of the plot

8. figure of speech in which abstract ideas and principles are described in terms of characters, figures, and events
 9. An upsetting of expectations - the opposite happens from what would be usual so expect
 10. Words and Phrases that put a picture in your mind.
 11. conversation between characters

Word Bank

- |               |               |                   |                     |
|---------------|---------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| flashback     | characters    | irony             | dynamic character   |
| dialogue      | foil          | climax            | images              |
| conflict      | allegory      | direct exposition | indirect revelation |
| foreshadowing | juxtaposition |                   |                     |