

Literary Terms

Across

4. A deliberate exaggeration of a literary work or song
 7. A group of four lines
 11. The end
 13. A fatal flaw leading to a hero's downfall
 14. Place where the story is being held/told
 16. Quality of being open to more than one interpretation
 18. Figure of speech in which a part is made to represent a whole, or vice versa
 20. Straight Man
 21. Meaning of a word, phrase, sentence, or text
 23. Exaggerated statements not meant to be taken literally

25. When the hero leads to their own downfall

Down

1. The arrangement of words and phrases to create well formed sentences
 2. The reason behind a character's specific action or behavior
 3. Conversation
 5. An author's manner of writing a literary work
 6. Person or thing that is the opposite of each other
 8. The formation of a word from a sound
 9. When the hero begins an adventure and comes back changed
 10. Continuation of a sentence without a pause beyond the end of the line

12. The narrator's position from which the story is told

15. Visually descriptive within a literary work
 17. General attitude of something within a piece of writing
 19. Pause or break in the middle of a line
 22. Compares one thing using like, as or, than
 24. Written or spoken language in its ordinary form