

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lord of the Flies Crossword

Across

- At the end of the book the boy's are _____ by a naval officer.
- The small area of warm water where the boy's bathe and play.
- The boy who works beside Jack and enjoys hurting people.
- The boy who finds the dead pilot and is mistaken as the beast.
- The imaginary thing the boy's are frightened of, yet lives inside of them.
- The leader of the hunter's and the person who wants to be in charge.
- The state of continuing to live or exist in difficult circumstances.

- The thing that is made to send a signal for someone to find the boy's.
- An emotion that controls the boy's, and is seen throughout the book, especially with the beast.
- A piece of land that is surrounded by water.
- What the boy's eat for meat.
- The job that Jack and his choir boy's have on the Island.
- A large elevation of Earth's surface where the boy's first kept the fire.
- The fat boy who gets pushed by a rock and falls to his death.

- Who is the author of the book?
- The name that is given to the severed pigs head, which also is the title of the book.
- What is the travesty in which made the boy's stranded on the Island?
- Piggy's beloved object which represents order, rational thought, authority and civilization.
- They belong to Piggy and help start the fires. They eventually break and get stolen.
- The boy voted in charge.