

Lord of the Flies

Across

1. What was Simon going to warn the boys about, that would change the way they lived on the island?
3. The difference between Ralph and Jack was that, Ralph still believed in ...
5. Jack seems to be a character that needs to be in ...
9. After Jack and two other boys went and attacked the shelter at night, what was it that they came away with?
11. What is the one thing Ralph knows will get the boys rescued?
14. William Golding's "Lord of the Flies" is an example of what rhetorical device?
15. Which boy seems to act as the "adult" in this novel?

16. Other than Jack who else seemed to strongly dislike Ralph and Piggy and even killed Piggy without a second thought?
18. Before Simon came out of the forest and was killed, what state was he in?
20. What had Jack called Ralph when he did not want to climb the mountain when it was almost dark?

Down

2. When Ralph was chief he was ... for everyone else, whereas Jack could do and say whatever he wanted
4. What is the one thing on the island that scares the boys more than themselves?
6. What are the twins referred to as in this novel?

7. What was mentioned often that was inside the forest?
8. After the first pig was killed, Jack's tribe turned into what?
10. When the conch was blown into what did it mean was to happen?
12. When the boys first arrived on the island, what group was Jack apart of?
13. Other than the theme of evil, there is also loss of ...
17. What is the one thing on the island that tends to keep everyone civilized?
19. What does "Lord of the Flies" refer to?