

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lupus SLE

Across

5. This type of therapy is done as a form of treating SLE.

6. _____ medications are used for joint pain and stiffness.

8. With close follow-ups & careful treatment, 80-90% of those diagnosed with SLE can expect to live a _____ lifespan.

11. Lupus mostly attacks women at this age.

13. Screenings for _____ may be required due to the possibility of the steroids thinning your bones.

14. People with Lupus are more vulnerable to _____ because both the disease and its treatments can weaken the immune system.

15. Red rash accross the cheeks and nose.

Down

1. _____ creams are used when treating rashes for this disease.

2. Lupus is an _____. This means that the body's natural defense system attacks heathy tissues instead of attacking only things ike bacteria and viruses.

3. Having Lupus appears to increase your risk of _____; however this risk is small.

4. The Etiology of Lupus is _____.

7. Periods of time where the symptoms periodically get worse and then improve.

9. This type of X-Ray is done when diagnosing SLE.

10. _____ is the most common form of Lupus and is considered more serious than the other forms.

12. Lupus means " _____ " in Latin.