

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lymphatic System Crossword

Across

4. very large phagocytotic cells of the connective tissues
 6. lymphocytes and macrophages congregate in dense masses called
 7. adenoids
 10. small organs found along the course of the lymphatic vessels, filters the lymph
 12. fluid contained within lymphatic vessels and lymph nodes
 14. branched mobile APC's found in the epidermis, mucous membranes, and lymphatic organs
 16. Lymphocytes that mature in the thymus and later depend on thymic hormones, "the T stands for thymic dependent"

17. Large lymphocytes that attack and destroy bacteria, transplanted tissues, and host cells that have wither become infected with viruses or turned cancerous

19. lymph nodes found in the mesenteries

20. deep pits in the tonsils

Down

1. lymph nodes in the groin
 2. lymphocytes that differentiate into plasma cells
 3. patches of lymphatic tissue located at the entrance of the pharynx
 5. soft, loosely organized, highly vascular material, separated from osseous tissue by the endosteum of the bone
 8. body's largest lymphatic organ

9. organ on the endocrine and lymphatic, and immune systems, houses developing lymphocytes and secretes hormones

11. branched, stationary APC's that contribute to the connective tissue framework of the lymphatic organs

13. tissue deep to the cortex of certain two layered organs (lymph nodes, adrenal glands, hairs, kidneys)

15. The ability to ward off specific infection or disease

18. the outer layer of some organs (adrenal glands, kidneys, cerebrum, lymph nodes, ovaries, and hairs)