

Name: _____

Date: _____

MaKayla Williams: Technology Crossword

Across

2. Software program designed to perform one or more computer functions.
3. It is the first thing you see once you log on into the computer, a row of icons that hold information.
5. When a program encounters an error, it freezes up and stops working, sometimes automatically quits.
7. A ribbon of icons that serve for several purposes. See what is active, add files, and easy access to stuff.
8. To start up an application by double clicking on a application or document.

9. The process of recovering data from a backup manually, or using backup software.

10. To stop an application that is being unresponsive or loading too long immediately.

Down

1. Refers to holding down the control key than clicking on the left mouse button.
4. Refers to external components like printers, or scanners, something you can see or touch.
6. Feature that allows users interface elements and paragraph of text to be spoken by on the Mac.