

MacBeth

Across

- 3. to guess or induce
- 7. from the root word fantastic, meaning unbelievable or out of this world, often used in Shakespeare's day to refer to something supernatural
- 12. unclear, unintelligible, or doubtful
- 13. undertaking, scheme, or project
- 14. from the root word valor; meaning brave or courageous

Down

- 1. a charade, facade, or act of deception, putting on a "front"
- 2. miserable, gloomy, depressing
- 4. absorbed, captivated, or enthralled with something
- 5. blasphemous, irreverent, disrespectful (especially in reference to religion)
- 6. praise or approval
- 8. visionary or predictive; associated with the idea of prophets, which were people believed to see the future
- 9. sneaky or shy
- 10. to compete or challenge
- 11. moor; a deserted wasteland
- 15. horrify, shock or disgust
- 16. fame, repute, or popularity