

Name: _____

Date: _____

Manifest Destiny Vocab

Across

9. Widely held belief in the 1800s that America had the right to expand from the Atlantic to the Pacific and that it was inevitable.

10. The leader of the expedition to explore the new territory asked this close friend to help lead the group.

Down

1. This man was picked by President Jefferson to lead the expedition to explore the new territory.

2. The name of the large land deal where America doubled its size by buying land from France.

3. Native American woman who basically saved the Lewis and Clark expedition acting as guide, forager and negotiator.

4. The official name for the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

5. The idea of prioritizing what is right for your country without considering how it affects other countries.

6. Large area in the Pacific Northwest that was settled over decades by mass caravans of travelers on foot and by wagon.

7. Someone who traveled overland to the West.

8. Someone who settles on public land under government regulation with the hope of gaining the land.