

Marelyn Ruiz

Across

5. across" or "beyond" or "through."
 6. a human body living or dead.
 7. the throwing back by a body.
 9. a human being rather than an animal.
 10. A numerical quantity that is not a whole number.
 15. the study of human societies and cultures and their development.
 18. an expert in or student of anthropology.
 21. a part of a letter that extends below the level of the base.

25. go beyond the range.

26. reaking of a hard object or material.

28. go up or climb.

29. text from one language into another.

30. feel or suffer.

Down

1. kept in a bank account.

2. printed text reduced by microphotography.

3. man.

4. an undertaker.

8. the status of lands or tenements held inalienably.

11. a set of related measures.

12. break.

13. mortal or death.

14. a person who writes music.

16. the science of the causes and effects of diseases.

17. place or put.

19. to climb.

20. bent

22. to change direction by interposing something.

23. write, written or draw.

24. a message sent by telegraph.

27. to share the feelings of others .