

Name: _____

Date: _____

Marfan Syndrome

Across

2. This is caused by a defect or a _____.

3. This disorder affects what tissue?

5. Marfan Syndrome affects growth, and development, including the _____, blood vessels, bones, joints, eyes, skin, and lungs.

6. This is the disorder for Marfan Syndrome.

10. When someone is the first in their family to have Marfan Syndrome it is called a _____ mutation.

11. How many out of 5,000 people have Marfan Syndrome?

12. One of the harder-to-see signs is a sudden _____ Lunge.

14. 3 out of how many people inherit Marfan Syndrome?

16. The most serious problem with Marfan Syndrome involves the _____.

17. What will a doctor recommend to a person with Marfan Syndrome if their symptoms progress?

18. An aortic Aneurysm can lead to an aortic _____ (tear).

Down

1. You will have _____ on your physical activity.

4. This doesn't usually happen till later on in life.

7. Unfortunately this condition can Not be _____.

8. Problems with the cardiovascular system can develop and aortic _____.

9. People with Marfan Syndrome will have to live with Physical _____.

13. It is possible for two parents without the disease to have a child with Marfan Syndrome but it is usually _____.

15. One of the many easy-to-see signs is a _____ spine.