

Martha's crossword

Across

3. A big loud bang that can cause destruction
4. When you stretch something time or to be excited or scared about something.
8. When something or someone has been in the sea and they go onto dry land.
9. When you are expecting something.
10. To form an opinion when you have finished something.

11. When you separate things/numbers into smaller parts.

Down

1. A screen that you watch shows on.
2. To mix up something or to muddle it.
5. Something that doctors give to ill people to help them get better.
6. To make something up or pretend it is there.
7. To make up your mind about something.