

Name: _____

Date: _____

Martin's Big Words

Across

2. the quality or state of being free

5. a work stoppage caused by the mass refusal of employees to work

9. a prize awarded annually to those who have done the most or best work between nations, holding and promoting peace

10. to look at something or someone with enjoyment

11. keeping people of different races or religions separate from each other

12. when all people have the same rights

Down

1. natives or residents of the southern part of the United States

3. having an uncertain chance of continued survival; feeling as if someone is against you

4. Intensely hot heat

6. to cause someone to believe that something is true

7. the action of seizing someone to take into custody

8. a African American civil rights activist