

Name: _____

Date: _____

Marxist explanation of crime

Across

2. Which sociologist argued that what is defined as serious crime is ideologically constructed
4. The agencies of social control protect _____ class interests and power
5. Marxists argue that capitalist society is _____
8. Offences committed by large companies or individuals acting on behalf of those companies is called _____ crime
9. The impression in official statistics that crime is mainly a working class phenomena is largely due to selective _____ enforcement
10. Social _____ is the driving force behind crime, according to traditional Marxists

Down

1. Marxists regard the structure of society as being based on _____ between the rich and the poor
3. Crime committed by middle class individuals who abuse their work positions for personal gain, at the expense of their employer
6. A more recent Marxist theory which has developed a more sophisticated approach to crime is referred to as _____ Marxist
7. Describes the dominance in society of the ruling class set of ideas over others, and acceptance and consent of them by the rest of society