

Name: _____ Date: _____

Mass Media, crime, victimization

Across

1. In articles appearing in the Virginian-Pilot the phrase “illegal immigrants” is used as a substitute for
3. process by which punitive social control becomes a tool to marginalize and keep [the Latinx community] from thriving
5. Individuals are systematically denied humanity
7. the use of race alone as a criteria for deciding to stop or detain someone
10. First Hispanic Associated Justice of the Supreme Court

11. A source of mass media
12. Do Latinx have leading roles
13. a result of decisions and policies concerning race that are overtly or covertly subordinating people of color in an effort to maintain social control over them and sustain the status quo.
14. Critical race theory points out how some laws have created racial categories that will subordinate groups of _____
15. Who was seen as a strong Latinx in the 1960’s

Down

2. tactic used by Trump

4. The representation of Latinx in the movies and shows
6. The action of coming to live permanently in a foreign country
8. _____ threat perspective shows how mass media frames a minority group that begins to increase in size and causes the dominant group to feel socioeconomically and politically threatened.
9. Critical _____ theory uses critical response to study legal and civil rights with the idea the race is a social construct and how it has supported the subjection of people of color