

Math 9 Statistics Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. The local gym used _____ random sample technique when they surveyed the same number of people from 5 different age groups.
3. If the survey results don't accurately tell the truth about the population of interest, the survey has _____.
8. The procedure used for collecting information from the sample.
9. All the English classes during Block A were given a survey to answer about the school. This is an example of a _____ survey.

10. Picking every 10th person through the door to ask survey questions is an example of _____ sample.

11. If data is _____, it means the results are believable and reliable.

12. A study is _____ if the findings are repeatable.

13. Assigning people a number, then randomly picking numbers to be sampled is an example of using _____ sample.

14. The _____ is the entire group that the survey is trying to learn about.

Down

1. When shopping online, a pop up window asks if you'd complete a survey for the company. This is an example of a _____ survey

4. Three important steps in statistics is _____, analyzing, and interpreting data.

5. The _____ is the group used to gather information about the whole population.

6. The leadership teacher used _____ sampling when she gave a survey to her class to ask what the school population thinks of the new school logo.

7. This is one way the Government collects data from people.