

Name: _____ Date: _____

Math Vocabulary Puzzle

Across

3. to replace something
6. the relation between two expressions that aren't equal
10. a whole number that's not a fraction
13. an example that opposes an idea or theory
14. the set of all solutions of an equation or condition
15. A numerical or constant quantity placed before multiplying the variable in an algebraic expression

16. special symbols that show which is greater or equal
17. an expression built up from integer constants, variables, and algebraic operations

Down

1. a number's value from its distance from zero
2. to solve
4. what you add to a number to get zero
5. an element, feature, or factor that is liable to vary or change

7. a compound statement formed by joining two statements with and
8. a number or letter that's isolated on its own
9. the opposite operation from the operation in the equation
11. a statement that the values of two mathematical expressions are equal
12. something that's completely different from the other