

Max_Ellingsen_Chapter 12

Across

2. A geopolitical strategy whose object is to cease the expansion of the enemy.
 3. The original line separating North and South Korea
 8. A military strategy when a country promises to retaliate with greater force to prevent any attacks
 10. An organization that aims to stop the spread of communism
 12. An American foreign policy whose stated purpose was to counter Soviet geopolitical expansion during the Cold War.
 14. One of the first substantial international crises of the Cold War
 16. A Soviet statesman who served as the First Secretary of the Communist Party of Soviet Russia

18. A country that is controlled by another even though it is recognized as independent.
 19. A civilian foreign intelligence service of the government of the United States
 20. A notional barrier separating the former Soviet bloc and the West prior to the decline of communism

Down

1. A military strategy where both sides use all available nuclear weapons
 4. A treaty signed between the Soviet Union and 7 other Soviet satellite states
 5. To transfer from private to state ownership or control.
 6. A war where the countries involved do not use all available resources. Often used to avoid nuclear war.

7. a state of political hostility between countries characterized by threats and propaganda
 9. A committee to investigate alleged disloyalty and subversive activities on the part of private citizens
 11. An American initiative passed in 1948 to aid Western Europe, in which the United States gave over $12 billion in economic assistance to help rebuild Western European economies after the end of World War II.
 13. An alliance between the countries of North America and Europe
 15. The promotion of Anti-Communist propaganda
 17. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration