

Mayflower clothing, bedding, tools, and arms.

Across

8. A sleeveless upper-body garment. It is usually worn over a dress shirt and necktie.
 11. Men needed to have a helmet, tasset, rapier, halberd, chest plate, this was considered
 12. These held up stockings.
 14. A saw with a narrow blade and a handle at both ends, used typically by two people.
 15. Today these are best made with 600 count linen, not canvas.
 16. Logging tool used to chop trees
 20. Lead balls. Bring 60 pounds.
 21. This suit of clothing was made of durable plain woven fabric and very sturdy.
 22. A hand tool used in gardening and farming.
 24. This Dutch type mechanism is a type of lock for firing a gun or is a gun using that mechanism.

25. A long-bladed hand tool with a beveled cutting edge and a plain handle that is struck with a hammer or mallet, used to cut or shape wood, stone, metal, or other hard materials.
 26. It is nice to have this under foot when jumping out of bed onto a cold dirt floor.
 27. A small T-shaped tool with a screw-tip for boring holes.
 29. Do not forget this to hold your equipment and breeches up.
 30. A bladed weapon intended for slashing or thrusting.
Down
 1. Made from an animal's armor.
 2. Shotgun, scatter gun was known as a
 3. Worn between 1540-1670 this type of neck wear was worn by men and women to decorate the neck.
 4. This garment was worn under the doublet.
 5. This is a chemical explosive. Bring 20 pounds of it.

6. Not a golf term but the number of pairs of shoes to bring on the trip.
 7. Today it looks like a body pillow, it is used for support while sleeping.
 9. A tool primarily for digging, comprising a blade - typically narrower and less curved than that of a shovel - and a long handle.
 10. Made in Ireland these covered men's legs.
 13. Bring plenty of these for the bed. It may get cold and wet.
 17. A tool with a helical bit for boring holes in wood.
 18. A pocketed belt for holding ammunition.
 19. A hand tool consisting of a solid head set crosswise on a handle and used for pounding.
 23. Small axe
 28. Woolen headgear fashionable between the 15th and 18th centuries, and associated with the town of Monmouth in south east Wales.