Media Critically Thinking

Across

- 1. when life was simpler and quality was defiantly better
- ${\bf 2.}$  the four letters assigned by FCC to identify a particular broadcast tv station
- $\mathbf{5.}$  somebody or soemthing that provides a good visual image on the tv
- 10. links a person or idea to a negative symbol
  14. the language of ads is full of intensifies like
- greatest, best most, lowest prices

  18. use to reinforce the main point
- 21. coordinated interation between two or more orgnizations designed to create a greater effect 22. tries to make a unpleasant reality more
- acceptable
  25. good looking models to attract your attention
  26. violence that serves no purpose for a story's
- 28. questions designed to get us to agree with the speaker
- 30. escape responsibility
- 31. agency is in charge of granting licenses to owners of broadcast tv and radio stations
- 33. violence that serves a role in a story's plot

- 34. assumption that most people believe something or the idea
- 36. testifying about the value or quality of the product
- $\overline{\bf 37.}$  blame a problem on one person , group , race , or etc.
- 38. usues sentimental images
- 39. a local tv station that has a contract with one of major networks
- 40. regular people use in commercials

Down

- 3. video recorded for earlier newcasts about the same or a similar subject
- 4. persuaders talk directly to us when they use this techinique
- 6. tries to persuade us to buy a product by promising to give us something like discounts , and etc.
- 7. a slang expression for tv news anchorperson
- 8. it warns a negative future
- 9. hormone that is an excitant of activity
- ${\bf 11.}$  responds to an argument by attacking the opponent
- 12. situations that are reasonably similar can aid decision making

- ${\bf 13.}\ {\bf something}\ {\bf that}\ {\bf is}\ {\bf directly}\ ,\ {\bf fully}\ ,\ {\bf and}\ {\bf clearly}\ {\bf expressed}$
- 15. rely on professionals to advise us about things that we dont know
- 16. a large business corporation that owns a variety of companies
- 17. deliberate provides a false context to give a misleading impression
- 19. famous people
- 20. ignoring complexity and propose a easy way out
- 23. sometimes draw a huge conclusion on basis of few facts and mostly assumptions
- 24. commom unproven , exaggerated , or outrageous claims
- ${f 27.}$  persuaders seem confident , bold , strong , or firm
- 29. tend to believe the item is better than old things and ideas
- $\textbf{32. } \vec{\textbf{f}} \textbf{alse} \textbf{hood with complete confidence}$
- 35. something is disliked by the intended by the audience