

Name: _____

Date: _____

Media Terminology

Across

5. This type of edit excites the viewer.

7. A word to signify type or category.

9. Otherwise known as an establishing shot.

10. Sound that suits the visual image.

11. The way people, places and events might be shown.

12. A word to explore the implicit meaning of an idea, word or image.

Down

1. Making judgements about people based on a set of constructed beliefs.

2. Sound that does not suit the visual image.

3. One generic convention of Action Adventure films.

4. A French term - meaning 'in the frame'.

6. A term used to group members of a society.

8. The technique of splicing together aspects of recorded film sequences.