Medicaid

Across

2. The functional area that exchanges information with other systems and agencies

7. A form that an individual or household uses to apply for assistance

8. Special, faster processing of SNAP applicants who qualify

9. Deduction given to a household that has utility costs, but does not qualify for the standard

11. A logical sequence of data collection pages that appear as a case is completed or read

12. Members of a household whose needs, resources, income, and deductions are considered in determining eligibility for benefits

13. The list of funtional areas that appears on the left side of the TIERS page

15. The rules used to determine financial eligibility for certain Medical Programs that are based on IRS tax rules

16. A term used to indicate that an individual has an acceptable reason fo rnot complying with a program requirement

Down

1. A state and federal cooperative program that pays for certain medical and health care costs

3. The amount of benefits issued in excess of what should have been issued

4. The members in an EDG who are eligible for a fiven program

5. An intranet application used by eligibility staff to access online data about individuals

6. Refers to the functional area that allows users to view case, EDG, and individual information

10. A set of TIERS pages that must be completed before information entered on these pages is saved

14. An individual, beginning the month after the individual turns age 18 and ending the month the individual turns age 50