

Medical Conditions #1

Across

- 2. A chronic, potentially life-threatening, inflammatory disorder of the airways resulting in bronchial edema and narrowing of bronchial airways
- 5. An inflammatory disorder resulting in the ulceration of the lining of the colon and rectum associated with antibiotic use
- 7. A disorder typically characterized with hallucinations as well as delusional and disordered thoughts
- 8. A disruption of the electrical impulse generation or conduction in the heart that leads to an abnormal function

- 10. A patient exhibits a wide array of behavioral characteristics ranging from mild to severe. Deficits in communication and interaction
- 11. A common liver disease
- 12. A device that is implanted subcutaneously, usually in the clavicle region of the chest wall designed to maintain the heart rate.

Down

- 1. The heart can no longer maintain circulation that is adequate for body tissues to function

- 3. A group of malignancies characterized by the abnormal proliferation of WBC in the bone marrow or blood
- 4. A type of malignancy involving the plasma cells
- 6. A progressive disorder that destroys brain cells and manifests by loss of intellectual functions such as memory, language, behavioral changes, problem-solving and reasoning.
- 9. A hormonal metabolic disorder of multiple etiologies characterized by hyperglycemia and results in deficiencies in insulin secretion

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|------------------|---------------|-----------|---------------|
| Leukemia | Diabetes | Pacemaker | Arrhythmia |
| Colitis | Heart Failure | Asthma | Alzheimer's |
| Multiple Myeloma | Hepatitis | Autism | Schizophrenia |