

Name: _____

Date: _____

Medical Setting and an Estheticians role in it.

Across

4. An educated guess that is based on observation or study of an issue in question.

5. _____ is an alternative to chemical peels, especially on strong, oily, thick skin.

9. The study and treatment of cancer.

11. A wide-spectrum antibiotic that is derived from erythromycin.

12. A facility that intergrates traditional spa services with medical esthetics procedure is wh

13. Which is considered the gentlest enzyme and is often used for sensitive skin?

14. Skin smoothing using an ablative laser process.

16. A philosophy of reasoning that is based on first generating and then testing a hypothesis.

17. The group in an expertiment that is not given the factor, medication, or product in question.

Down

1. The regrowth of skin, occurs between 3 and 14 days after treatment.

2. The breakdown of collagen fibers when exposed to heat.

3. The rebuilding and strengthening of collagen fibers during the healing process.

6. An aquired response to envirnmental substances.

7. Used both pre- and post-operatively to stimulate the movement of fluid in the connective tissue.

8. A natural herbal remedy which helps reduce the during of bruising.

10. A water-soluable, bland emollient ointment.

15. An antiviral medication that can stop or shorten a recurrent herpes simplex outbreak.