

Name: _____

Date: _____

Medications and the Musculoskeletal System

Across

4. patients with long-term use of Aleve, Motrin, or Advil should be monitored for this

8. helps prevent osteoporosis

10. this medication will interact with anticoagulants

11. an example of a bisphosphonate

12. A patient taking a DMARD should not receive this

13. used to suppress the autoimmune response in RA

14. medication given to relieve pain during an acute gout attack

15. toxic substance used as a muscle relaxant

Down

1. decreases inflammation without the risk of stomach and intestinal ulceration

2. medication used to treat the pain from diabetic neuropathy

3. what medication should not be taken by someone with heart failure or a recent heart attack

5. antigout medication

6. NSAIDs may be used to treat this symptom of arthritis

7. side effects include increased saliva, bradycardia, and hypotension

9. Monitor ALT and AST in patient's taking this