

Name: _____

Date: _____

"Medicine Bag" Vocab

Across

2. boys

4. a group of individuals or vehicles moving together toward a destination

6. a thick paper material used to water-proof buildings

10. little girl

11. to purposefully refrain from eating for a period of time, typically to focus on spiritual things

12. a string of leather or cord with decorative metal tips and a decorative clasp worn with a collared shirt where one would wear a typical fabric necktie

13. yes

14. in a shy or hesitant manner

16. not proper or appropriate

18. unorganized activity, movement, and/or noise that is often confusing

Down

1. soft slip-on footwear typically made of leather

3. a piece of land designated by the United States government to be the home of a particular Native American tribe; an area which is managed by that Native American tribe, rather than the government of the state the land is located in

5. a small, tough, silver-gray shrub that thrives in sunny, dry climates

7. a stand-alone mountain or hill with very steep sides and a flat top

8. grandchild

9. a soft, light-colored type of leather made from animal skin that has not been tanned (treated with chemicals)

15. hello; generic greeting

17. a large nation of Native North American people made up of several groups and many tribes