

Medieval Europe

Across

3. A small plot of land given by Lords to Vassals.
7. Peasants who would set up a business and sell their wares.
8. A man of royalty who ruled over land and the people in it.
9. Human property owned by Lords who did work such as farming.
10. A form of punishment used to injure, kill, or make someone give information.

Down

1. The person who ground grain into flour.
2. A law restricting the King's power.
4. Castle made of stone that replaced the motte and bailey castles.
5. A sport where knights on horse back attempt to knock each other off using lances
6. An armoured soldier who rode on horse-back.