

Memories!

Across

3. In our very first play, we each chose a song to sing. You did 'In and Out the Dusty Bluebells', do you remember what Shani did? Here We Go Round the _____ Bush

6. In the Tiger and the Jackal, after a lovely long argument, who agreed to play the Tiger? (If you are stuck, the answer is quite easy - out of the five of us, this person is the most easy going!)

8. Don't feed me, don't feed me, then everything goes wrong. The _____ goes wrong, the TV goes wrong, YOU GO WRONG!

9. In a game we played in the lounge (made up by Kiran), you and Kiran were remarkably higher than Shani and I in terms of the levels we achieved. What was the main object used in this game?

10. Oh doctor, I'm in trouble, Well _____ gracious me!

12. When we played Mums and Dads, what was the character that everyone wanted to be? The _____

Down

1. When we first started writing notes to each other in Archie's car, we used a code. Here is a coded message using the code. Decipher the message and insert the answer into the crossword: Hello, everybody likes licking oranges.

2. In our first ever play, who had a towel wrapped around them as a costume, where they pretended to be a sheep?

4. When we played dormitories, we had assemblies on the stairs (do you remember?!). Kiran's character was particular vicious and cruel, what was it? The _____

5. On the first night playing door wars when we went skiing, what animal was the giant soft toy that we used to wedge against the door? _____ bear

7. When we played dormitories, my favourite name was 'Kelly Quinn' (like in Just Add Magic). What was yours? Emily _____

11. On our last skiing holiday, which football player's name were we yelling really loud for most of the trip? Mohamed _____