

Memory In Psychology!

Across

6. A loss of memory access to occurred events or learned information
7. The process of taking individual pieces of information and grouping them into categories to improve the amount of information remembered
8. A memory technique to help your brain encode and recall important information
9. A prompt or stimulus that aids retrieval of a stored piece of information from long term memory
10. The portion of long term memory that processes ideas and concepts that are common sense

Down

1. A loss of memory access to occurred events or learned information
2. A type of long term memory that involves conscious retrieval of previous experiences
3. The process of maintaining information over time
4. An exposure to previously stored information that predisposes one's response to related stimuli
5. The process by which information is encoded, stored, and retrieved