

Name: _____

Date: _____

Memory

Across

- 1. type of organization that is meaningful to the individual
- 3. length of time information will remain in working memory
- 5. interference causing forgetting during the retention interval
- 9. our capacity to remember
- 10. a test requiring a correct response from multiple choices
- 12. knowledge about what to do
- 13. placing information in long-term memory

- 14. decay causing forgetting with the passing of time
- 15. knowledge that enables one to know how to complete a skill
- 17. amount of information in working memory

Down

- 2. interference that causes forgetting prior to gaining information
- 4. transfer of information from working to long-term memory

- 6. permanently stored memory
- 7. transforming information to be remembered and stored in memory
- 8. memory that temporarily stores and uses recent information
- 11. search through long-term memory for information needed at the time
- 16. a test that requires a response with no aid