

Name: _____

Date: _____

Memory

Across

9. The part of working memory that coordinates other components

13. Occurs when newly learned information interferes with and impedes the recall of previously learned information

14. Part of working memory that deals with visual information

Down

1. Interview technique devised to improve the accuracy of witness recall

2. Difficulties in recall that are due to the absence of the correct retrieval cues

3. The amount of information that can be held in memory

4. Permanent store holding unlimited amounts of information for long periods

5. Failure to retrieve memories

6. Question phrased in such a way that it prompts a particular kind of answer

7. Store of sensory information that lasts no more than a few seconds

8. Type of long-term memory for information about specific experiences and events in our lives

10. The length of time information remains in memory

11. Part of working memory that deals with auditory information

12. Method of increasing short-term memory by grouping information into larger units