

Name: _____ Date: _____

Mental Health Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. A neuro-degenerative disease resulting from repetitive head injuries.

5. Disorders that affect your mood, thinking and behavior.

8. Considering and improving one's health.

12. A person who focuses on a specific subject or topic, highly skilled and understands the area.

13. When a person has this disorder they feel confused, disorientated, personality changes, hallucination and paranoia.

15. A disorder where a person experiences losing touch with reality and delusions.

16. Not being able to get enough sleep

17. Reoccurring mental stress from a upsetting and agonizing experience that can cause flashbacks and sleep disturbance.

21. A medical treatment of impairment, injury or disorder.

23. A temporary unconsciousness caused by a blow to the head, may also cause confusion and interfere with balance.

24. Wanting to end one's life.

25. Feeling sad, empty or lonely.

Down

1. A person trained to give guidance on personal, social, and psychological problems.

2. An organ that houses the nervous system and coordinates sensation and intellectual activity.

3. A disorder in which a person has abnormal behavior, strange speech, and a decreased ability to understand reality.

6. The act of intentionally hurting oneself as a emotional coping mechanism.

7. A disorder where a person may experience altering happiness and depression.

9. Imaging or seeing something that is not real.

10. A disorder in which a person has difficulty socializing, communicating, has repetitive actions and thoughts.

11. Medical care given to improve the health illness or injury.

14. A constant feeling of worry, nervousness and fear.

18. Identifying a illness or problem by considering the symptoms.

19. Gaining strength or improving one's health.

20. A mental state of mental emotion from a demanding circumstance.

22. Recurring obsessions, compulsions, that can interfere with daily and normal routine.