

Mental Health Definitions

- | | |
|---|----------------------------------|
| 1. The perception of something that is not present. | A. Bulimia |
| 2. Something that is present but is perceived incorrectly. | B. Mental Health |
| 3. An incorrect belief that is maintained despite contradictory evidence. | C. Depression |
| 4. Feelings of severe sadness and hopelessness. | D. Illusion |
| 5. Feelings of worry, nervousness, or unease. | E. Anorexia |
| 6. Persistent inattention, hyperactivity, and impulsivity. | F. PTSD |
| 7. An obsessive desire to lose weight by refusing to eat. | G. Hallucination |
| 8. Obsessive desire to lose weight in which periods of overeating are followed by compensatory behaviors. | H. Mania |
| 9. Periods of great excitement, euphoria, and overactivity. | I. Obsessive Compulsive Disorder |
| 10. Unwanted thoughts and ideas that cause someone to engage in repetitive behaviors. | J. Anxiety |
| 11. Stress-related disorder that may develop after a traumatic event. | K. Psychology |
| 12. The scientific study of the human mind. | L. Mental Illnesses |
| 13. A branch of medicine that deals with mental health disorders. | M. Delusion |
| 14. A person's condition with regard to their psychological and emotional well-being. | N. Psychiatry |
| 15. A wide range of mental health conditions that affect your mood, thinking, and behavior. | O. ADHD |