

Name: _____

Date: _____

Mental health

Across

2. An action that is intended to cause harm to another person who does not want to be harmed.
 3. This aggression is aimed at achieving a goal.
 6. Influences many of our ideas about the world.
 11. Males have more of this hormone that some believe is linked to aggression.
 12. Neurotransmitter that plays a role in the regulation of aggressive behavior.

13. Disease, the person has difficulty controlling their behavior and repeats actions. (abbreviation)
 14. Physical harm to children that can cause later aggression.
 15. worrying a lot, nervousness
 17. false perceptions
 18. loss of energy
 19. Causes emotional ups and downs, but they're not as extreme as those in bipolar 1 or 2 disorder.

Down

1. this aggression is motivated solely by a desire to hurt others

4. sad mood, loneliness, crying at times
 5. Is related to the development of several brain abnormalities.
 7. A key factor in aggression that activates a motive to harm others or objects.
 8. Portrays many aspects of life unrealistically.
 9. model of aggression
 10. Many believe that aggression is learned through this type of learning
 16. Due to the lack of negative consequences for violence on television, children will _____ the behavior.