

Meta Ethics

Across

- 7. moral knowledge is known by gut instinct
- 8. The meta-ethical view that morality is defined by facts about nature or human nature
- 9. Asks questions about what ethical statements people should follow
- 10. The view that ethical judgements state facts
- 11. Describes and compares ethical norms in society

Down

- 1. Applying normative principles to particular areas
- 2. It is a mistake when people reason from facts to moral claims
- 3. Human lives focus on pleasure and pain
- 4. The view that morality has nothing to do with facts, and moral knowledge is impossible
- 5. The non-natural view that morality is defined by God's commands
- 6. The meta-ethical view that moral knowledge is a factual property known by intuition and God's commands