

Name: _____ Date: _____

Microbiology/Infection control

Across

5. Disinfectant that usually disinfects within 10 minutes

11. A person who carries disease with no symptoms

13. An agency that enforces safety and health standards in the workplace

15. Standards state that all microbes be destroyed

17. _____ Pathogens are viruses carried through the blood and body fluids

18. Ability to produce results or effectiveness

19. Head _____ is usually accompanied by scratching, redness, and small bite marks

20. _____-Use refers to nonporous items such as shears, combs, etc

21. _____-use refers to porous items like neck strips, cotton basks, etc

22. Disinfecting salon implements and tools is an example of _____ precautions

23. A sanitizer product that can be applied to the skin to reduce microbes

Down

1. Another word for contagious

2. This type of disinfectant kills harmful bacteria

3. Standards apply to removing dirt and debris to aid in preventing growth of microbes

4. This occurs when disease causing bacteria enter the body and multiplies

6. The ability of the body to destroy infectious agents that enter the body

7. Requires living host, -like people, plants, or animals

8. Disease producing bacteria

9. Store disinfected materials in a clean, dry, _____, container

10. Standards require products to destroy or kill certain microbes on nonporous surfaces

12. Non-disease producing bacteria

14. The Canadian equivalent to OSHA

16. When disease spreads from one person to another