

Microbiology 20-24

Across

- 1. Another name for simple transverse fission is
- 4. Bacteria that look like curved rod are called
- 10. Refers to their size, shape, and arrangement of bacteria
- 11. The plural of bacillus is
- 12. Word the means shaped like a sphere or ball

Down

- 2. This type of bacteria requires complex organic food from a carbon source to grow and develop
- 3. Bacteria that grow best at high temperatures are called
- 5. The study of fungi is called
- 6. Phelonic compounds derived from a chemical known as toluene are

- 7. The organism from which a parasite obtain its nourishment
- 8. A group of nonmotile, gram-negative, intracellular parasites that cause disease in humans
- 9. The smallest and simplest self-replicating bacterium