

Microscope

Across

2. Supports the microscope slide
3. Sharpens the image under low and high power
9. supports the body tube
11. focuses the image under low power
12. Contains the magnifying lens you can look through (10x)
13. Holds the microscope in place
14. is how large the object appears, compared to the object's actual size

15. The lighted area that you see through the microscope

6. Contains different level magnifying lenses

7. Controls the amount of light that enters the microscope

8. A flat piece of glass

10. supports the microscope

Down

1. holds and turns the objective lenses into viewing position

4. Shines light through the object being viewed and into the microscope

5. Connects the eyepiece and the revolving nosepiece

