

Mid Term Study Guide

Across

- 1. This places a premium on being unbiased, unprejudiced, detached impersonal.
- 2. This is the learning to think paradigm
- 5. This is a profound change in the thoughts perceptions and values that form a particular vision of reality.
- 6. Focused on primarily on attaining basic rights for women.
- 7. It is rooted in the concept of scepticism - the questioning of the source of truthfulness and the reliability of knowledge.

8. A _____ is a society in which formal power over public decision and policy making is held by adult men.

9. Is considered to be Women's Liberation.

10. _____ suggests the most critical event in current culture is the clash between the digital world and the written world

Down

3. This norm is used to judge all other persons. It is backed up by institutional and economic power; by institutional and individual violence.

4. Scientific thinking is also known as?