

Name: _____

Middle Childhood

Across

2. by the presence of significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning as well as significant limitations in adaptive functioning, ranges between 20-23 and 35-40
4. Is the idea that individuals determine their own social and personal worth based on how they stack up against others
6. Is the phenomenon of speaking and understanding two or more languages
7. is the faculty of the brain by which data or information is encoded, stored, and retrieved when needed
8. Is the difference between what a leader can do without help and what he/she can do with help
9. When people compare to those who are less proficient than they really are
12. Is by the presence of significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning as well as significant limitations in adaptive functioning, ranges between 20-25
13. Refers to the ability to consider multiple aspects of a situation
16. Children or youth who give evidence of high achievement capability in areas such as intellectual creative artistic or leadership capacity or in specific academic fields, ranges between 115-180

18. Is taking care of your own physical health, washing hands, blowing their own nose, brushing their hair
19. Has a profound effect on all members of the family, can affect self esteem, development of constructive social relationships
20. Is defined as significantly subaverage intellectual ability which ranges between 50-55 and 70
21. Children who have high self-esteem have an easier time handling conflict, resisting negative pressures and making friends
22. Is a general education classroom in which students with and without disabilities learn together
23. Children are at the stage where they will be learning to read and write, to do sums, to do things on their own
24. Involves noticing and interpreting social cues, formulating social goals generating possible strategies to solve the problem, evaluating the effectiveness of the strategy
25. When people compare themselves to people who are better than they are

Down

1. Refers to the ability to objectify language

3. The child is now mature enough to use logical thought or operations but can only apply logic to physical objects
5. Is defines as significantly subaverage intellectual ability which ranges between 35-40 and 50-55
10. To describe a child's social effectiveness, it defines a child's ability to establish and maintain high quality and mutually satisfying relationships
11. Many kids may find their relationships may change over time, friends drift apart, friendships are important to the development of family life, crave acceptance of their peers
14. Is both the introspective knowledge of one's own memory capabilities and the process involved in memory self-monitoring
15. A child who is at home without adult supervision for some part of the day
17. Comes from different sources for children at different stages of development, the development of this in young children is heavily influenced by parental attitudes

Word Bank

Profound Retardation	Friendship	Inferiority Stage	Zone of Proximal Development
Severe Retardation	Social Problem Solving	Mild retardation	Metamemory
Moderate Retardation	Memory	Gifted and Talented	Divorce
Downward Comparison	Inclusion Classrooms	Self Care	Social Competence
Bilingualism	Self Esteem	Metalinguistic Awareness	Latch Key
Concrete Operational Thinking	Self Image	Social Comparison	Decentering
Upward Comparison			