

Name: _____

Date: _____

Middle East Choice Board Activity

Across

5. The action of clearing a big area of trees.

9. An official ban on trade or other commercial activity with a certain country.

11. A tax or duty to be paid on a particular class of imports or exports

12. Traditions, customs, and beliefs help shape the goods and services in this economy.

14. The type of economy where citizens have the power to control prices on goods by using a system called "Supply and Demand".

15. A religion where followers believe that Jesus is the Messiah.

Down

1. An economy where the citizens and the government have control over prices, incomes, productions, and investment.

2. A religion that was founded by Muhammad.

3. A limited or fixed number or amount of people or things, in particular.

4. An economy where the government has total control over a country's production, investment, prices, and incomes.

6. A form of government with a monarch at the head.

7. The percentile of people in a country that can read and write.

8. A religion that is similar to Christianity, but the followers are still waiting for their Messiah.

10. A cube-like stone building that is in Mecca, and it is the most sacred shrine for Muslims.

13. The holy book for the Jews.