

Migration/ Migration and globalisation

Across

- 5. what is the idea that barriers between societies are disappearing and people are becoming interconnected across national boundaries?
- 7. what state policy aimed to encourage immigrants to adopt the language, values and customs of their "host culture"?
- 10. from 1900- WW2 what nationality were the largest immigration group?
- 11. what is the term for privileged foreign nationals welcomed by the state?

- 12. what type of policy accepts that migrants may wish to retain their separate culture identity
- 13. until the 1980s the UK was almost always a _____ of people

Down

- 1. what type of migrant are the most exploited?
- 2. migrants may develop _____ identities, made up of two or more different sources

- 3. migrants may develop _____ identities due to them not feeling like they belong completely to one culture or country
- 4. globalisation increases the _____ of types of migrants
- 6. immigration helps to do what to the dependency ratio
- 8. female migrants feel themselves fitting into roles of what types of services?
- 9. the UK population is currently growing due to