

Minerals

Across

1. what mineral is used in drywall, is easily scratched by fingernail, and is white to pink or gray in color
4. what mineral is used in paint and roofing, is flexible in thin sheets, and is colorless to yellow in color
7. what mineral is used in building stones, bubbles with acid, and is colorless or variable in color
12. what mineral is used in cement and lime, bubbles with acid, and is colorless or variable in color
15. what mineral is used in hydrofluoric acid, cleaves in four directions, and is colorless or variable in color
18. what mineral is used as an ore of lead and in batteries, has a gray/black streak and black to silver color
19. what mineral is used as a food additive and to melt ice, has a salty taste, and is colorless to yellow in color

20. what mineral is used in ceramics and glass, cleaves in two directions at 90 degrees, and is white to pink in color

21. what mineral is used as an ore of iron, has a black streak, and is magnetic

Down

2. what mineral is used in ceramics and glass, cleaves in two directions and has visible striations, and is white to gray in color
3. what mineral is used in jewelry and abrasives, often seen as red glassy grains, is dark red to green in color
5. what mineral is used in furnace bricks and jewelry, is commonly light green and granular, and is green to brown or gray in color
6. what mineral is used in mineral collections and jewelry, cleaves at 56 and 124 degrees, and is black to dark green in color
8. what mineral is used in ceramics and paper, has a greasy feel, and is white to green in color

9. What mineral is used in construction materials, is flexible in thin sheets, and is black to dark brown in color

10. what mineral is used in pencil leads and lubricants, has a black streak and greasy feel, and silver to gray color

11. what mineral is used in mineral collections and jewelry, cleaves in two directions at 90 degrees, and is black to dark green in color

13. What mineral is used as an ore of sulfur, has a green/black streak, and is often called "fool's gold"

14. what mineral is used as an ore of iron and in jewelry, has a red/brown streak, and is metallic silver to earthy red in color

16. what mineral is used in sulfuric acid, has a yellow/white streak, and is yellow to amber in color

17. what mineral is used in glass, jewelry and electronics, has a glassy luster, and may form hexagonal crystals