

Name: _____

Date: _____

Mint Joinery Crossword

Across

3. Liquid – mostly water – contained within cells in a tree or timber.

6. The vertical part of a step.

7. A horizontal beam that provides intermediate support for rafters or sheet roofing.

10. A board that runs from one floor level to another, into which staircase treads and risers are jointed.

11. The underside of a part of a building such as the eaves or archway.

12. This wood is usually obtained from pine, fir, spruce or larch.

13. A strip of wood that covers the ends of rafters and to which external guttering is fixed.

Down

1. The edges of a roof that project beyond the walls.

2. A horizontal timber member placed along the top of a wall to support joists and to spread their load.

4. Timber produced from broad-leaved trees.

5. The innermost strip of timber holding a sliding sash in a window frame.

8. One of a set of parallel sloping beams that form the main structural element of a roof.

9. The remains of a branch in timber.