

Misconceptions crossword puzzle

Across

- 2. Which location is hit by the sunlight with almost a 90 degree angle?
- 4. Path of the Earth as it revolves around the sun
- 6. True or False? Both Hemispheres have the same amount of daylight and nighttime on the Solstice (June 21st and December 21st)
- 9. Are the days longer or shorter when the Northern hemisphere is tilted toward the sun?
- 10. Line passing through Earth's center and poles

- 11. What do you think is the time when the sunlight hits the Tropic of Cancer on June 21st and the Tropic of Capricorn on September 21st at almost a 90 degree angle?
- 12. True or False? Fall equinox on the southern Hemisphere is March 21st
- 13. What location gets the most direct sunlight when the Northern hemisphere has summer solstice?
- 14. What seasons do we have on the Northern Hemisphere when days are long?
- 15. Are the days longer or shorter when the Northern hemisphere is tilted away from the sun?

Down

- 1. What location gets the most direct sunlight when the southern hemisphere has summer solstice?
- 3. Movement of Earth around its axis
- 5. Movement of Earth around the sun
- 7. One revolution of Earth around the sun is called a(n)
- 8. What season do we have on the Northern Hemisphere when days are short?