

Mixtures And Pure Substances Crossword

Across

- 2. What type of mixture can you identify the different particles?
4. Made up of a solvent and solute(s)
9. What do you call a solution when you water it down?
12. The amount of solute that is able to be dissolved in a certain solvent
13. You make a solution more _____ by adding more solute
14. When a substance can't dissolve another substance to create a solution

15. What do you call a solution when it's full of solute?

17. Mechanical mixtures are _____

18. Made up of two or more elements

20. The part of the Solution with the smallest quantity

Down

1. You can _____ a solution by adding more solvent

3. The part of the solution with the greatest quantity

5. Contains two or more pure substances

6. When a substance is able to dissolve in another substance to create a solution

7. Elements are found on the _____ table

8. What looks pure but is a mixture?

10. One type of particle in the substance

11. When more solute can be dissolved to make a solution

16. Can't be broken down into smaller parts

19. _____ is sorted into two groups, pure substances and mixtures